

The Florida Technology Council is holding Florida's first state government blockchain symposium on May 23 (8:00 – 2:00)

For invited government officials!

TCC Center for Innovation
300 West Pensacola Street
Tallahassee, FL 32301

About this Event

Attendees will learn about blockchain and discuss potential next steps for Blockchain in Florida. The event is for public sector stakeholders who are focused on learning about blockchain technologies and preparing Florida for innovation. The event will feature blockchain expert speakers from government and industry.

Blockchain Symposium Agenda

Networking and Continental Breakfast

Welcome

Keynote Speaker - Blockchain – It's More than What You Think!

Blockchain: Revolutionary or Waste of Time?

When is Blockchain A Fit?

Industry Verticals Breakout Groups

- Health and Human Services
- Transportation
- Education
- Public Safety

Boxed Lunch

Breakout Group Sharing

What's Next for Florida?

Note to government attendees.

While there is no charge or admission fee for attendance at this event, FTC and our sponsors are providing a continental breakfast and boxed lunch to all attendees. As a government official, you are responsible for understanding the Florida's gift and ethics rules applicable to you. The estimated cost per person is $20 for this event. If you have questions about whether you can accept the items offered at this event, please contact your organization's ethics office, legal counsel, or designated official. FTC can provide a compliance letter upon request. If required, you may also reimburse FTC by providing a check at the event and a receipt will be provided. FTC is committed to complying with all government gifts and ethics laws and regulations.